Who Do I Contact to Find Qualified Professionals to Run the Stations?

There are lots of organizations working to protect our natural resources. Below is a list of some organizations that might have a local office in your area. Give them a call, they may be willing to volunteer their time to come and talk to your students about water quality or run one of the stations for a Plant-a-Seed field day.

- US Forest Service
- State Dept of Environmental Quality – Local Office
- State Dept of Conservation – Local Office
- State Dept of Forestry – Local Office
- Soil and Water Conservation Districts – Local District
- Town or City Dept of Parks and Recreation
- Local and Regional Environmental Nonprofit Organizations
- Citizen Watershed Monitoring and Advocacy Organizations
